Chapter 461: I Like Anywhere as Long as Mom Is Around

0 4 minutes read

After talking about work, Sean thought for a moment and whispered, "Check if there are any kindergartens around Wonderful Manor that teach in both Chinese and English!"

Xu Lin paused, and Sean had already hung up.

Wonderful Manor? Why did it sound so familiar?

Xu Lin thought for a long time before remembering it was the place where Director White lived.

But last time, when he was about to tell Sean Amber's address, Sean interrupted him with anger.

Had Mr. Smith found Cindy? So they would return to Tong City soon?

Sean fixedly looked at Cindy and asked her and Amber's current situation.

"Cindy, you and your mother have lived here for almost ten days. Do you like this place?"

Cindy shook her head, paused, then nodded.

"What does this mean?"

Cindy said, "I like anywhere as long as mom is around me."

But she didn't like the cuisine in Los Angeles, nor did she like the living habits here. She couldn't understand what people said. It was really difficult to fall in love with a strange foreign city.

"What about your mom? Does she like it here?"

"No."

Sean looked at Cindy subconsciously.

Was this what Amber tell her?

When she had something on her mind, did she talk to Cindy about it?

The child was so young. Was she not afraid of affecting Cindy's mood?

"Mom doesn't even smile much. When I woke up in the middle of the night last night, she wasn't in the bedroom. She was outside doing work. I don't like it when she's like that."

Sean was silent.

What kind of company did Amber choose? Was it a fundless company that oppressed and exploited ignorant girls like her?

If she was ill from work, what would happen to Cindy?

A chill flashed in Sean's eyes. He had forgotten that he once asked Amber to deal with work in the early morning!

"Then, were there any unfamiliar men who came to play at your home?"

Cindy paused, looking at Sean with a confused look, "Dad, mom said, my dad will only be you."

Sean's heart seemed to be filled with honey. It was so sweet that he was almost bloated.

Amber did the right thing. How could his daughter call another man dad?

"Moreover, my mother and I moved, and recently no unfamiliar men visited us."

"Mrs. Joseph said that a man visited you the other day."

"But we are not unfamiliar with him."

Sean pressed his lips slightly.

Cindy casually said, "But when I was very little, an unfamiliar man coaxed me to call him dad."

"I was smart, I didn't do that!"

Sean touched Cindy's head with satisfaction. Before he could praise her, Cindy continued.

"How can my father be so ugly! He just wanted to win my mom's favor!"

Cindy's tone was a little disdainful.

Sean's face darkened. Unexpectedly, someone was really thinking about his child and ex-wife!

There seemed to be a fire burning in his chest. He bit the corner of his lip and fixedly looked at Cindy.

Cindy had never seen such a look of him and was a little scared.

"Dad..."

Sean touched Cindy's head and whispered, "Oh, you go ahead."

"My mother is beautiful but none of the men who wanted to be my dad look good. So I..."

Cindy didn't finish speaking, but Sean suddenly understood and was a little proud.

He smiled, thinking of the scene he met Cindy for the first time. She held his hand and introduced him loudly to the people in the police station.

She said, he is my father!

Cindy, a three-year-old baby, was so discerning. Amber wouldn't fall in love with another man who was inferior to him, would she?

"I like uncle Shi!"

Sean was stunned and looked at Cindy.

"He is so handsome. In my heart, he is the most handsome man in the world!"

The smile on Sean's face froze suddenly. Cindy smiled and said, "My mother said that he would give me a birthday present on my birthday every year. He would also spend time with me during the holidays and give me my favorite toys if he's not available!"

"He is the person who loves me most besides mom."

Sean's expression changed.

He knew Cindy too late. It was unfair!

"Uncle Lu... is also good, but he's not as good looking as uncle Shi! I like him quite a bit. Mom said, if it weren't for him, I might have died!"

"I was in poor health when I was little and was always sick. It was uncle Lu who often sent me to the hospital."

Sean kept silent.

It that was the way how Cindy ranked them, he had no right to be ranked.

Sean felt a little depressed, patted Cindy, and said, "All right, so much for the topic."

"Cindy, who do you like most, Shi Muzhou or me?"

When Cindy was about to speak, a bad premonition rose in Sean's heart.

Cindy heard their conversation when he and Amber first talked about divorce.

At that time, she cried.

In this world, few children would want their parents to be separated. Cindy would probably choose him, wouldn't she?

"Uncle Shi!"

"Huh?"

Sean kept silent for a moment.

Her answer was not what Sean's expected. What he was about to say was stuck in his throat.

Cindy whispered, "Dad, why do you compare yourself with uncle Shi?"

Sean was not in a good mood.

He was not even qualified to compare with Shi Muzhou?

Sean was angry. Cindy pressed her lips and asked cautiously, "Dad, don't you think uncle Shi is handsome? There are many people who like him! In my previous school, my teachers and classmates all like him!"

Shi Muzhou was a famous super star. Wasn't that very normal?

When he was about to speak, it dawned on him. He looked at Cindy with a curious expression.

So, Cindy chose Shi Muzhou because she was a fan of him?

Chapter 462: Who Would You Choose to Be Your Dad

0 4 minutes read

Sean licked the corner of his lips. If that was the case, Cindy would never choose him.

“Who would you choose to be your dad, Shi Muzhou or me?”

Cindy’s eyes widened in surprise, “Is there an option?”

Sean looked into Cindy’s sparkling eyes. His heart seemed to be stabbed, because he had already known who she would choose.

He didn’t want to hear her answer.

“I’ll choose you.”

Cindy spoke suddenly.

Sean was a little surprised. He looked at Cindy who was smiling slyly. She pinched her little finger, and said solemnly, “But I want you to promise me that you won’t make mom angry anymore.”

Well...

Sean had no way to promise her that.

Even if he wanted to make Amber angry, Amber might not give him the chance!

Even if he wanted to make Amber angry, he didn’t know how to do that!

“Okay! I promise you.”

“But I want you to do me a favor.”

Cindy tilted her head and looked extremely cute.

“What’s it?”

“Don’t let unfamiliar men stay at your home. Don’t let them get close to your mom.”

“Why?”

“Because you have to stop them from becoming your step-daddy.”

...

After leaving Mrs. Joseph’s house, Amber went straight back home.

Cindy was not back. Amber had no appetite, so she asked Selena to make her something simple.

Selena made a steak for her.

Amber sat at the table and said in a low voice, "Can you go to the wine cellar and get me a bottle of wine?"

In less than five minutes, Selena came back with a bottle of Lafite.

It might not be very expensive. Amber opened it with a corkscrew and poured it a bit.

The taste of the red wine was mellow, and Amber's restless mood gradually eased. She squinted slightly and began to eat.

Halfway through the meal, she received Marcus's video call.

Amber carried her computer to the study.

"Sister, eat your meal first. I'm not in a hurry."

Amber only took two bites of the steak. Hearing Marcus's words, she said, "No, I'm full."

"You probably have seen the document I sent to you."

Marcus paused.

"Is there any solution?"

This was the first time Amber saw such a corrupt company. Even Sherman couldn't save it.

"Yes, if you enable me to implement it, you'll see results in three months."

Marcus froze for a moment, and said, "What's your solution?"

"Reducing the staff, and your uncle must leave the White Group!"

Marcus kept silent for a moment.

Amber didn't force him to agree immediately.

From the time Sherman publicly gave the media false information about her, she severed her relations with Sherman and the White Group!

She agreed to work in the White Group, mainly because Marcus helped her and Cindy come abroad and helped her get rid of Sean, this nightmare.

"Marcus, to tell you the truth." Amber organized her words and said in a low voice, "There must be someone behind the White Group's fast decline. When my mother and Sherman built the company together, they didn't have any enemies!"

"Moreover, if this operating model keeps up, the White Group would go bankruptcy soon."

Marcus kept silent. Amber continued, "It's okay if you don't agree. Anyway, you will pay me as usual. Even if the White Group goes bankrupt, I can work in other companies."

"Sister, actually, you can be a little less straightforward."

Marcus let out a sigh and whispered, "I agree with what you said. I will fly to Los Angeles in two days!"

Amber froze for a moment.

In fact, Marcus was not a decisive person. But he trusted her so much and agreed with her idea so quickly. Even if she were him, she couldn't make the decision in such a short time!

Moreover, she was Marcus's half-sister.

However, his consent was not the most important. It hadn't been a very long time since Marcus worked in the company. He was not very capable at work and didn't have much say in the company's affairs.

To implement Amber's plan, he needed to discuss with Sherman and hold a board of directors!

And it was difficult to persuade a group of stubborn people!

"Marcus, you don't need to rush to agree with me..."

"Sister, I want to see the results sooner!"

Marcus was actually very wise.

He knew he didn't have the makings of managing a company. He trusted Amber and put all his chips on her.

If the matter was resolved, he would continue being a wealthy dandy.

If it couldn't be solved, he didn't have to do what he didn't like. He only had to be mocked by that group of people in his circle.

"Sister, I'm going to my parents' place. Talk to you later."

"Okay."

After hanging up the phone, Amber breathed a sigh of relief. Marcus believed her, but she didn't believe herself.

...

Wonderful Manor.

When Xu Lin arrived, Sean and Cindy had not started to eat at Mrs. Joseph's house.

Carrying a dish, Gu Jinyan came out of the kitchen, he paused and asked, "Sean asked you to be here?"

Xu Lin nodded.

Sean whispered, "Gu Jinyan, I have some things to do. I can't eat lunch with you and your cousin."

Gu Jinyan, "Huh? Are you serious? The food is already served, and you're not eating with us! Sean, don't you think you are being a little rude?"

No, Sean didn't.

He motioned for Xu Lin to pick up Cindy, and wheeled himself out of the villa without looking back.

"Dad, I want to eat Small Wontons and Chicken Soup Noodles."

Cindy was already hungry. The food she said was not easy to find in Los Angeles. Sean gave Xu Lin a look.

Half an hour later, in a restaurant, Sean took the menu and asked Cindy to choose.

Cindy chose Small Wontons, Chicken Soup Noodles, and Bean Jelly.

Sean only ordered a bowl of noodles.

Cindy didn't eat much.

She ate some wontons, some rice noodles, and had a few bites of jelly. Sean finished what she left over.

After eating, Sean got into the car and was about to take care of Cindy's school thing.

"What's the result?"

Chapter 463: We'll Build a Chinese-English School

0 4 minutes read

"Mr. Smith, there are almost no kindergartens teaching in two languages near Wonderful Manor."

After all, there weren't many Huaxia people living in Wonderful Manor. Cindy seemed to be the only one who needed to learn English, and there were even fewer who knew Chinese.

Even Mrs. Joseph's son, Jerry, didn't speak Chinese.

Because Mrs. Joseph had never taught him that.

"Then we'll build a Chinese-English school for Cindy."

The corners of Xu Lin's mouth twitched.

"Mr. Smith, why don't you talk to Director White and admit your mistakes. We should go back to Tong City. This is no need to meddle in the education of another country."

Sean was in a bad mood and whispered, "Isn't English popular in Huaxia? There are probably Chinese education institutions in Los Angeles. If you think it is troublesome to build a new school, I will ask my new assistant to do that!"

"Secretary Xu, I don't need an assistant who can only give me suggestions! It will make me think that you are the president of the Smith Group."

Xu Lin paused, pushed the glasses on his face, and said in a low voice, "Mr. Smith, the kindergarten closest to Wonderful Manor might be an option."

"There is a Chinese student who is studying in Los Angeles. She is seeking a job recently. I can arrange for her to teach in the kindergarten for a period of time!"

"Summer vacation is approaching, and she can also be Cindy's private tutor!"

Sean thought this was a good suggestion.

He nodded.

The kindergarten that Xu Lin said happened to be the one Jerry was in. It was in Wonderful Manor. If Amber forgot to pick up Cindy from school, Cindy could come back by herself.

“That’s settled!”

Xu Lin had long expected that Sean would agree. Xu Lin had already received the admission notice of Cindy from the kindergarten, and all that was left was to contact the kindergarten about getting that college student on board.

Sean smiled.

After Sean finished speaking, Xu Lin handed a bank card to him.

Sean took it and stuffed it into the pocket of Cindy’s shirt. He touched Cindy’s head with a gentle smile, “Give the card to your mom after you get back and ask her to buy you whatever you want!”

“Dad?”

“I’ve enrolled you in kindergarten. I need you to study English hard. Next time when I come, I hope you can be my tour guide, okay?”

“Are you leaving?”

Sean hesitated and nodded.

“If you miss me, you can call me.”

Cindy loved Sean very much. The first time she used Amber’s mobile phone to call Sean, she memorized Sean’s number.

Sean smashed a lot of mobile phones. He didn’t know about this.

“Dad, I secretly took mom’s cell phone and called you... but I didn’t get through.”

Amber also changed her phone. Sean’s phone number changed too often, so she didn’t save them.

Cindy tilted her head, whispered the number Sean used a long time ago, and asked, “Dad, is this your number?”

Sean was stunned. He didn’t remember it. Xu Lin whispered, “Mr. Smith, this is your previous phone number.”

Sean paused and asked Cindy, “When did you memorize it?”

“A long time ago.”

He lightly kissed Cindy’s head, “You will get through next time, after I return home.”

Cindy nodded with a grin.

Sean asked Xu Lin to take Cindy home and said to Cindy in the car, “After dad and Xu Lin leave, tell your mom that you can go to kindergarten, and the password of the card is your birthday.”

Cindy nodded.

When they almost got to Wonderful Manor, Cindy reached out and grabbed Sean's white shirt. She blinked her big eyes and asked, "Dad, are... are you still with Lin Man?"

"No!"

Sean spoke in a low voice.

"Cindy, you are still young and many things are beyond your understanding. Although dad has grown up, many things that had happened are blurred to me."

"But vaguely, I know that I did one thing wrong. There are many things without evidence."

Cindy indeed couldn't understand what he said.

She did know a lot better than other children and was sensitive and intelligent, but adults' things were too complicated for her.

They arrived at the entrance of Amber's villa.

Selena heard the noises and ran out.

Xu Lin opened the rear door and carefully put Cindy in the pram. Cindy and Sean said goodbye.

"Dad, goodbye."

Sean raised his head. In the master bedroom on the second floor, Amber was standing by the window, looking at him.

He smiled and said, "Goodbye."

Sean didn't enter the villa at all. Xu Lin got in the car and left directly.

Amber didn't know what he meant by that look. She came downstairs.

Cindy had been taken in by Selena.

"Mom, I had Rice Noodles and Wontons for lunch."

These were all domestic snacks. The place where they lived was too far away from the restaurants where they were sold.

She was grateful that Sean took Cindy to eat them.

"Were they tasty?"

Cindy nodded and mentioned Sean. She thought of what Sean said and took out the card from her pocket.

"Mom, dad asked me to give this to you, saying that the password was my birthday. He said I can ask you to buy whatever I want with it."

Amber froze.

Cindy didn't know the card, but Amber did.

There were not many black cards of the World Bank in the world. No matter which country you were in, you could use it without currency exchange.

Amber was shocked and whispered, "You..."

What did Sean mean?

Before the divorce, he said he would never let her get a penny from him.

However, he came all the way to Los Angeles and gave Cindy such a card. What did he want?

Amber was in a state of confusion. Holding the phone, she almost subconsciously chased out of the villa. Sean's car was already out of sight.

Amber ran to Mrs. Joseph's house.

But she was told that Gu Jinyan just left.

Amber thanked Mrs. Joseph, and walked back while calling Sean.

Sean answered quickly, seemingly waiting for her call.

Amber hadn't figured out what to say, and kept silent for a while on the phone.

In fact, when Sean saw the number, he knew that it was probably Amber.

He didn't have Amber's number, but at this time, the only one who would call him was her.

Chapter 464: Is It Charity

0 4 minutes read

After hesitating, Sean answered it.

There was silence on the other side.

Sean squinted and asked, "Amber?"

There was still no sound on the phone.

Sean didn't hang up, but waited quietly.

"Sean, what do you mean?"

"What do you mean? I don't get it!"

Amber's voice was a bit aggressive, and she sneered, "Why did you give Cindy that card? Is it charity?"

"Didn't you say that you hated me taking advantage of you the most? Why did you give me money?"

Sean's breathing paused for a moment.

Before answering the phone, Sean had known that Amber would humiliate him.

But seeing Amber's call, he couldn't help but answer it!

In fact, when Sean gave Cindy the card, he knew that Amber would definitely call him when she got the card.

Cindy was the only bond between them.

"Say something! Sean!"

Amber was a little hysterical.

But she didn't even know why.

During the past eleven years, she had always cherished and valued her and Sean's once-in-a-lifetime relationship.

Even after marrying him, she never used his money.

It was poison. The past between them would become impure if she used it.

Although Sean didn't remember their past.

Although she didn't love Sean anymore, she still didn't want him to taint their past.

"I don't want your money. I can support Cindy by myself!"

"You don't need to worry about how we live. You should come back and get out of our life with your money!"

This was the first time Amber dirty words. Sean said with an angry expression, "Amber, that's why you called?"

That card was the world currency of the World Bank. Amber called not to thank him but to argue with him?

Sean laughed angrily.

"Then what else the reason could be?" Amber asked in reply, "Shouldn't you be happy? Don't you think I'm a vicious woman? Shouldn't you be happy that I want to return the card to you?"

"Why? You want to remarry me?"

Amber blurted out the last sentence.

As soon as she finished speaking, there was a sudden silence on the phone.

Amber was a little uneasy. She was afraid of getting a yes from Sean as well as a no.

She had been rejected by Sean for so many years, and she didn't want to experience it again.

Amber's lips were dry, and there was no light in her eyes. Her voice choked, and her breathing rate stabbed Sean's chest like needles.

“What if I say yes?”

Sean pressed his lips.

She kicked up such a fuss because he gave Cindy a card. If he told her that he wanted to remarry, Amber would probably think he was insane!

Even if they indeed loved each other eleven years ago, the affection between them had been eroded by what he did.

Sean sneered and said, “Amber, Cindy is my daughter. shouldn’t I pay alimony?”

“I didn’t sign the divorce agreement before you went through the divorce formalities!”

“I’m trying to comply with the agreement you made with my father. I’m trying not to disturb your life! Amber, don’t push me to the cliff!”

Amber breathed quickly. Sean could hear it. She seemed to be crying.

Sean actually seldom saw Amber cry.

Just because he gave Cindy money, Amber cried?

That was ridiculous!

Sean sneered.

She hated him so much that she was reluctant to accept anything from him?

The pent-up feeling seemed to be a piece of cloth soaked in water, covering his mouth and nose. He couldn’t breathe and felt like smashing something.

Sean kept silent for a while before speaking blankly.

“Cindy’s enrollment procedures have been completed. It is the kindergarten where Mrs. Joseph’s son goes to.” Sean paused, and continued, “Tomorrow Cindy can go to school, and the teacher has been arranged. In the evening, she will come to your home and give Cindy an English tutoring.”

Amber kept silent. Sean could feel her unwillingness.

Sean was irritated by Amber’s stubborn attitude. He paused and then whispered, “I have good news for you.”

“You don’t have to worry that I would pester you after I know the addresses of you and Cindy.”

“I’ve booked a flight in the early morning, and I will return home with Gu Jinyan.”

Amber finally reacted.

This sentence was the most pleasant among what Sean said.

She lowered her eyes, and there was some brilliance in her pupils.

She wanted to ask why he came to Los Angeles with such serious injuries.

Amber opened her mouth and was unable to get this question out.

Since Sean was going back home, he would not have much to do with her and Cindy's life.

Amber hung up the phone blankly.

Sean froze for a moment. Hearing the busy tone, he took a look at the phone, and made sure Amber had hung up.

Sean threw the phone aside with a darkened face.

Gu Jinyan turned his head and glanced at him, "Sean, why don't I know you are going back with me?"

Sean squinted at Gu Jinyan.

"Now you know."

"A sudden decision?"

Gu Jinyan didn't mind Sean's bad attitude.

But Sean didn't want to talk about this.

He did not answer, and Gu Jinyan did not continue to ask. Sean leaned in the wheelchair and closed his eyes and asked Gu Jinyan, "What time is it?"

Gu Jinyan glanced at the phone and said, "It's five minutes to four o'clock."

"Tell Xu Lin to drive to the hospital."

Fifteen minutes later, in Los Angeles Hospital.

The doctor checked Sean, prescribed some medicine, and fixed the position of Sean's ribs.

Gu Jinyan couldn't believe his eyes.

He almost laughed when he saw the medical record. He pushed open the ward door in anger, and threw the medical record onto the table.

Sean raised his eyes, fixedly looking at Gu Jinyan with a blank face.

Gu Jinyan was even angrier, "Sean, what did you do this afternoon? Have you forgotten your ribs are broken?"

"You knew it was a very dangerous thing to be discharged. I thought you would bear it until you return to Tong City. You think you are a superman or something?"

Chapter 465: I Will Go Back With You

0 4 minutes read

"How can you recover if you don't listen to the doctor?"

Sean kept silent. Gu Jinyan pressed the corner of his lips, and said, "You stay in Los Angeles, and I'll go back by myself."

After that, Sean's dark and deep gaze fixed on Gu Jinyan.

"I will go back with you."

Gu Jinyan said decisively, "Don't even think about it! Your broken ribs are quite close to your rib cage. If they pierce your rib cage, you would die."

"You'll stay in Los Angeles to recuperate and return to Tong City in a few days."

Gu Jinyan took out his phone. His peachblossom-shaped eyes were full of indifference, "Or, you want me to call Amber and ask her to look after you?"

Sean's expression changed.

A divorced couple reunited after a long absence. The husband was hospitalized with an illness, and the wife stayed by his side to look after him. Then the husband recovered and was discharged. They got back together and made peace. What an impressive story!

However, Amber would never come and look after him!

Cindy might be a little worried after hearing that he was hospitalized!

Sean reached out and touched his ribs.

Earlier, when he saw Cindy, he couldn't help but hold her.

She was so lovely and cute.

The corner of Sean's mouth was curved. Cindy looked like him and inherited the good genes from him.

And her mouth resembled Amber's, but her character was not like that of Amber. She would never say those harsh words.

When she called him dad softly, he couldn't control himself, so he reached out and held her.

In the past three years, he did not believe that Cindy was his child, and did not give Cindy the slightest care.

And it was too late to compensate her at this time.

Sean licked his lip.

"Alright, I'll stay."

Gu Jinyan didn't think it would be useful to mention Amber.

Unexpectedly, Sean actually gave in.

He glanced at Sean in surprise who drooped his eyes with a blank expression.

...

Amber came back home. Cindy was still sitting in the pram with a little fear in her eyes.

“Mom, you were out for dad?”

She was a little nervous, fearing that she had done something wrong. Therefore, she asked cautiously.

Cindy was sensitive. Amber had always been aware of this.

She took a deep breath and whispered, “No, I was having a walk.”

Cindy’s eyes fell on Amber’s slippers.

Her lips moved but she said nothing.

Amber hesitated, walked to Cindy’s side, squatted down, and whispered, “Don’t take anything from him anymore, okay?”

“Mom, you mean dad?”

Amber nodded.

Since she didn’t marry Sean for his money, it was not right for her to take his money after they got divorced.

“Yes.”

“Why?” Cindy’s eyes were full of tears, “Didn’t you say that daddy worked hard to earn money so that he could give me a good life?”

Amber paused.

“Was it a lie?”

Amber was speechless. She couldn’t admit that she lied to her before, but if she didn’t do that, her words would be contradictory.

“Your... dad is also short of money. If you take his money away, he won’t be able to pay for his food.”

Cindy’s eyes widened, “Really?”

Amber nodded with some guilty, and whispered, “So when you see him, remember to give the card back to him, OK?”

Cindy nodded obediently.

After Amber finished speaking, Marcus called.

It was still a video call. She went to the study and realized that it was not Marcus.

Sherman’s face appeared on the other side. He looked a little bad, and said to Amber, “Amber, what did you say to Marcus?”

“What do you mean?”

“Do you still hate me for what I did three years ago? So you asked Marcus to lay off employees in our company?”

“Marcus even asked me to stay out of this. Are you crazy? You want the inheritance of the White Group and want to take possession of the White Group?”

Amber laughed when she heard this. Her laughter instantly enraged Sherman, “What are you laughing at?”

“Sherman, the White Group was founded by my mother and you. I am the legal heir. If I want it, I would have got it.”

“You think I want to take care of your mess?”

Marcus’s expression changed, “How can you be so insolent! I’m your dad!”

“Three years ago, you used me to exchange for a small cooperation with the Smith Group. Now you are telling me you are my dad? When you were in trouble, you used me. When you are not, you want me to stay away from you! What kind of dad are you?”

“Mr. White, do you have a conscience or not?” Amber felt disgusted. She took a breath and whispered, “Since you don’t want me to help you manage the White Group, tell Marcus to fire me!”

“I don’t want to waste my time in a company that is about to be hollowed by borers!”

When Amber was about to hang up, Marcus pushed the door in, “Sister!”

Amber froze.

Marcus had snatched his phone from his father. He complained, “Dad, you are calling my sister behind me?”

When Marcus talked to Sherman, his tone was not gentle and calm as it was when he talked to Amber, “Why, can’t I talk to her?”

“I told you before that I want to lay off employees and hand over the company to my sister. I was not discussing it with you!” Marcus said seriously, “If you don’t agree, I will never inherit the White Group!”

“You!”

“What? I don’t want to inherit hundreds of millions of huge debts. Am I wrong?”

“Nowadays, the business world is the playground of young people! But you still follow your old rules. I don’t know how to manage the company. If you really leave me with a lot of huge debts, how am I supposed to pay it back?”

Sherman flushed in anger.

“Since you trust my uncle, let his son inherit the White Group. After you give the company to him, I won’t care about it and have nothing to do with it!”

“You! Marcus, stop!”

Marcus ignored him and left the study without looking back.

Chapter 466: What Did They Say

0 4 minutes read

He went out, and said to Amber in the video with a grin, "Sister, why don't we start a company and contend with father!"

Amber, "..."

It turned out that Sherman and Marcus usually get along in this way.

Although Sherman loved Marcus very much, Marcus would object to his wrong decisions without mercy.

"Start a company? Contend with Sherman?"

"Are you crazy? I know him. If you dare to do this, he will put all the pressure on you. What do you have to contend with him?"

Amber wasn't discouraging him. She knew Sherman was never a good person.

"I'm kidding, sister, don't worry, he will compromise before tomorrow. My uncle and cousin will be laid off!"

"By the way, sister, I have already bought the ticket. My plane will arrive at five in the morning!"

Amber smiled, "Okay."

Then she hung up the video.

She rubbed her eyebrows and was exhausted.

She did not go out of the study but turned on the computer and drafted the plans of the future development and operation mode of the White Group. She hadn't systematically managed a company. The first plan she made was to recruit talents.

Amber didn't come out of the study until Marcus arrived.

Before Marcus entered the door, he saw the lighted study upstairs. He took his luggage in and went straight upstairs. Amber was holding a cup of cold coffee, propping her head with one hand and thinking about something with a frown.

The orange light of the study fell on her, putting a touch of gentleness on her.

"Sister, did you just get up, or did you stay up all night?"

Amber was startled. She looked up and saw Amber standing at the door of the study.

"What time is it?"

"After five. It's already dawn."

Amber pressed the corner of her lips, and her head ached a little.

Marcus glanced at his phone.

“Knowing that I came to Los Angeles, some people in the company keep sending me messages to slander you.”

Amber took a sip of coffee and asked in a low voice, “What did they say?”

“Absenteeism, disobedience to arrangements, and incompatible work concepts! Blah blah.”

Marcus said, “By the way, someone will come and stay here for a few days. Is that okay?”

Amber said casually, “Sure, it’s your house. But remember to tell your friend that I got a child at home.”

“Okay.”

After that, Marcus urged Amber to go to bed, and he also went into his own room.

Marcus’s house was very big. For convenience, she and Cindy slept on the third floor.

When Amber got into the bedroom, Cindy was already awake. She was still jet-lagged and woke up very early every day. Selena was dressing her. Amber was looking for clean clothes in the closet while saying to Selena, “I made porridge when I came up, and you can eat it in half an hour.”

“Okay.”

Selena carried Cindy downstairs.

Amber got into bed and slept till noon.

When she woke up, the villa was quiet. She went downstairs and saw a man sitting on the sofa with short black hair and a clean white suit.

Amber glanced at him, thinking it was Marcus, and asked in a low voice, “Is there any food?”

The man on the sofa looked back, and Amber was stunned, “Mr. Fu?”

When Fu He saw Amber, he was also a little surprised, “Marcus’s sister is you?”

Fu He and Marcus knew each other? Amber was stunned.

Fu He was a domestic science and technology elite. Marcus was a rich dandy. They couldn’t know each other.

“Mr. Fu, how did you know Marcus?”

“I was once his tutor.”

Fu He was very independent. After he was in high school, he never spent his parents’ money. Amber knew he tutored, but she didn’t know that he was Marcus’s tutor.

Amber smiled and asked in a low voice, “Have you eaten?”

“Not yet.”

Amber was natural, and asked in a low voice, "Do you want beef noodles?"

"That would be great."

It was very comfortable to talk with Fu He. He was very good at taking into account other people's temper.

Amber went into the kitchen with a smile and asked, "Where are Marcus and Cindy?"

"They are shopping in the near supermarket with Selena."

She made five bowls of noodles. They smelled the fragrance as soon as they entered the door!

"Sister! What did you make for us?"

"Something simple. Come and eat."

"Great!"

...

Sean woke up in pain.

His injuries were gradually healing. During the recovery period, the wounds would itch.

He opened his eyes and saw Xu Lin.

Sean asked Xu Lin to keep an eye on the White Group's situation in Los Angeles. When Marcus got off the plane, Xu Lin received the news and hesitated to tell Sean about it.

He looked nervous. Sean asked, "What's wrong?"

"Mr. Smith, Mr. White is in Los Angeles."

The White Group was corrupt and declining. If Amber didn't rectify and reform it, it would go bankrupt.

Maybe Amber would take the chance to take possession of the White Group.

Marcus wasn't stupid, so he came at this time.

"Anything else?"

Xu Lin hesitated for a while, and continued, "Well, do you remember Fu He, the son of your high school teacher?"

Of course he did.

The guy who had a blind date with Amber!

At that time, he and Amber hadn't divorced yet, but Amber was anxious to throw herself into a new relationship!

The corners of his lips were stiff. Amber fell in love with him eleven years ago was probably because of his identity.

After getting a divorce from him, she wouldn't choose a husband who was ordinary.

Fu He had achievements and was a promising young man. He was very suitable to be Amber's new husband.

Sean squinted and glanced at Xu Lin, "Why are you mentioning him?"

"Well, Mr. Fu went to Mr. White's villa with his luggage. He is probably going to stay there for some time."

The air froze.

He was probably going to stay there for some time?

Why would Fu He, an elite talent, know Marcus?

Amber and Fu He were in a relationship? Amber invited him to her home and wanted him to be Cindy's stepfather?

Sean's chest was blocked, and his face instantly darkened. He took out his cell phone. Before he could dial Amber's number, Xu Lin stopped him, "Mr. Smith, what are you doing?"

"You don't see it? I'm calling Amber!"

"No, Director White will be upset if you call her at this time."

"She will be upset?" Sean sneered, "I'm already upset!"

Chapter 467: Am I Watching Her

Xu Lin asked in a low voice, "What are you going to say?"

Sean squinted at Xu Lin. Xu Lin was actually a bit scared, but he licked the corner of his lips and whispered, "You will only get into a fight with Director White again. Then she will know you are watching her."

"I'm watching her?" Sean sneered, "Don't be ridiculous!"

He squinted and said in a low voice, "Amber has resigned. Why do you still call her Director White? You want to work for her. Should I call her and recommend you?"

Xu Lin laughed hollowly, "Mr. Smith, if you do that, Director White will reject me more firmly. In her heart, you are not even as good as me!"

Sean's expression became darker and darker. Xu Lin swallowed and said, "Mr. Smith, don't be angry. Anyway, Cindy likes you. Maybe you can call Director White and tell her that you miss Cindy."

Sean's eyes were a little bit sullen, and he looked at Xu Lin intently.

Xu Lin chuckled, "Mr. Smith, women don't like men to keep a close eye on them. If you start with Cindy, Director White may not be that defensive."

"You can ask Cindy if Mr. Fu is going to stay at their home or not. What do you think?"

Sean licked the corner of his lips.

Xu Lin said this method was useful for women, but was Amber a woman?

She was tougher than a man. Gentle approaches wouldn't work on her.

Xu Lin was just worried about nothing.

Sean pushed Xu Lin away with one hand and tapped a few numbers on the screen.

His eyes deepened. Amber hung up.

The pent-up feeling in Sean's chest came up again. Why didn't she answer his phone? Was she afraid that he would disturb her and Fu He?

Or Cindy had already accepted Fu He as her new father, and they were afraid that his phone call would affect their family happiness?

Sean took a deep breath, and his face was clouded.

He called Amber again.

Amber didn't pick it up until it was about to hang up automatically.

Marcus said to her, "Sister, it's okay, answer the phone. Brother Fu is not a stranger."

Amber paused, took her phone out and answered it. Sean said with a sullen face, "What were you doing?"

Amber put down her chopsticks. Her beef noodles were tasty, but Sean's phone call took her appetite away.

"That's why you are calling me?"

of course not!

What is your relationship with Fu He? Why did he bring his luggage to your place? Tell him to get out!

These words were stuck in his throat. Sean took a deep breath. His dark eyes flickered, and it took him a long time to utter a word, "Put Cindy on the phone."

Amber was speechless.

She glanced at Cindy who was eating noodles intently. When she heard Amber talking on the phone, she only took a look at her.

"She is eating."

She suppressed her voice and answered.

Sean said in a deliberately ambiguous tone, "Eating? What are you eating?"

Amber didn't want to talk to Sean about such a common topic. Otherwise, it would make them look intimate and hadn't divorced yet.

But there were the others around her. She could only hold back her impatience and say, "Beef noodles."

Sean paused.

Beef noodles!

They were probably made by Amber!

Xu Lin had already investigated the maid in her family. She only knew how to make Western food.

He didn't know if Fu He could cook, but he was a guest. How could Amber let him make food for them?

Sean's face darkened. He hadn't eaten the beef noodles made by Amber. Fu He probably enjoyed it very much, didn't he?

"Mr. Smith, are we done here?"

Sean pressed the corner of his lips and said in a low voice, "I want to see Cindy. I will add your WeChat."

Amber, "..."

"Get me out of your blacklist, otherwise, I will ask the engineers of our company's technical department to spam you like hundreds of messages per second!"

Amber's expression changed. She had a good temper and seldom got angry. After walking away with the phone, she lowered her voice and said with a sullen voice, "Sean, don't act like a child, be mature!"

Sean's eyes were deep, "Amber, do you hear me or not!"

Amber hung up the phone blankly.

She logged on to WeChat. She stopped using it after she left the country. Then many unreceived messages popped up.

Amber ignored them and got Sean out of the blacklist.

With that, Sean's video request popped up.

Amber hesitated, then answered it.

Sean's handsome face instantly appeared on the screen.

The environment behind him could be instantly recognizable as a hospital.

Amber frowned and asked angrily, "Why are you still in Los Angeles?"

Sean was looking at Amber. Hearing these words, Sean's expression became a little cold.

"You..." Amber paused, and said, "Sean, you said that you would return home and never bother us again."

“I didn’t say that!”

Sean raised his voice abruptly. Amber was startled, staring at the screen with a trace of panic.

Sean’s attitude suddenly softened. He took a deep breath, suppressing the jealousy and anger in his chest, and asked with a livid face, “Amber, tell me, what is your definition of not to bother you!”

Amber paused. In her opinion, he should not call or visit them and just thought it as they didn’t exist at all.

Cindy was just over three years old. If Sean really did like that, Cindy would forget him one day.

However, Sean called her and visited them sometimes. If this kept up, when would Cindy forget him?

Amber was lost in her thought. Sean sneered, “I know what you are thinking.”

“But Amber, it’s not gonna happen!”

Both of them were talking aggressively. Xu Lin was frightened. He kept waving his hand to tell him not to be so angry!

Sean ignored him.

A ray of anger oozed from his dark eyes, and he looked sullen, “Cindy is my daughter. How can you stop me from seeing her?”

“Sean, don’t go too far. You know how you treated Cindy in the past three years!”

“Sean, every time I wanted you to see her, I had to beg you! You were not having such an attitude when you said she was a bastard!”

Sean laughed angrily, “Yes! You are right!”

In the past three years, he indeed treated Cindy badly. This was what Amber got on him. She wanted to use this to keep him away from Cindy.

Sean laughed sarcastically.

“I was bad to Cindy because I didn’t know she is my daughter!”

“Now that I know it, I’ll love her and compensate her.”

“I don’t care what you want. If you want to start a new family, Cindy will live with me!”

Amber frowned and said, “What do you mean? Sean, won’t you start a new family?”

“Lin Man waited for you for eight years. Are you going to let her wait for another eight years?”

The resentment in Amber's heart skyrocketed at the mention of Lin Man. Her face darkened and she continued, "Before coming abroad, I saw your mother publicizing your engagement! You could never have Cindy as long as Lin Man is around!"

"Oh, by the way, why are you looking for Cindy? Are you going to take her to your wedding?"

Amber spoke very fast, and almost every word she said hit Amber's heart hard.

Sean's expression changed.

Before she coming abroad?

Was it the day of his car accident?

Xu Lin said that he called Amber and asked her to come back and see him. His mother held the press conference on that day.

So, Amber didn't come back because she was jealous and angry that he was engaged to Lin Man?

"Are you jealous?"

"Jealous?"

Amber's voice trembled, "How dare I be jealous? Sean, wake up to reality. We are divorced. I was never jealous when we were a legal couple. How can I be jealous after we got divorced?"

"Love is useless. You taught me this truth! I will remember it for a lifetime!"

Sean was so angry that he almost threw his phone out.

She had always been so two-faced. Was it so difficult to admit that she loved him?

Sean's eyes were silent. When he was about to speak, the video suddenly went black, and a familiar male voice rang, "Amber, haven't you finished talking on the phone?"

"Mr. Fu?"

Mr. Fu?

What an intimate tone!

But when she called him, she only called him Mr. Smith in a cold tone!

"You want to use the bathroom?"

Ah!

Amber was talking to him on the phone in the bathroom?

They were legally married and legally divorced. Did Amber need to be so sneaky? He thought Fu He was a gentleman. However, he barged into the bathroom knowing that Amber was in there.

What was he going to do?

Peep at Amber?

Sean sneered and Fu He said, "No, Selena asked me to tell you that your noodles are sticking together. She will dump them and fry a steak for you."

"Okay."

Steak?

The maid in Amber's home was really a good assist.

How come when he went there, the maid looked at him as if she was guarding against a thief?

Sean's face became more gloomy. Maybe the maid was not going to make a steak for Amber but for Fu He, because Amber was worried that Fu He couldn't take readily to what she made.

Considerate!

Amber was really considerate!

People like Amber were popular and would have a happy marriage no matter who they married. However, her tender affection was exhausted in Xingyue Bay in the past three years!

Sean pressed his lips tightly. Amber thought he had hung up, and put her phone back into the pocket of the skirt. She straightened her hair in the bathroom and walked out. When she reached the dining room, Cindy stopped her.

"Mom, can I use your phone?"

Amber knew Cindy was not a person who liked to play on mobile phones, but she still asked, "Why?"

"Looking for Jerry?"

"I'll call dad! I miss him."

Before Amber could react, Sean's calm and cold voice suddenly rang in the living room, "Amber, how long are you going to keep me in your pocket?"

Amber was taken aback and hurriedly took out her phone, only to realize that Sean hadn't hung up the phone at all.

His face appeared on the screen.

"You..."

"Put Cindy on the phone!"

Sean coldly gave the command.

Amber was speechless.

Amber didn't think she said anything wrong in the bathroom, but Sean got angry?

For what?

Amber sneered and handed her phone to Cindy.

Fu He smiled, "So it's Mr. Smith's call."

Amber was a little embarrassed. She pressed the corner of her lips and said in a low voice, "He wanted to see Cindy."

Fu He smiled slightly. Selena had finished making the steak, but Amber had no appetite and looked in Cindy's direction with a worried look.

Cindy was lowering her head and talking to Sean.

"Cindy, I have a question for you."

Cindy nodded obediently.

"Is that unfamiliar man at your home invited by your mother? Is he... going to stay at your place?"

Cindy licked the corner of her lips, glanced blankly in Fu He's direction, and whispered, "Yes, he'll stay for some time, but he was not invited here by mom."

Sean looked at Cindy.

"Dad, Mr. Fu worked as a tutor for my uncle. He seems to have something to deal with in Los Angeles. He will leave after a few days."

Sean didn't believe it.

Fu He's work was in Huaxia, so he was not here for work!

He was here for Amber. Amber and he just got divorced, but he was anxious to hit on Amber.

What a disgusting man!

There seemed to be a fire in Sean's chest, which almost burned all of his sanity. He even wanted to remove the drip needle from the back of his hand, go to Wonderful Manor, and ask Amber if she was ashamed to throw herself into other men's arms eagerly.

Sean took a deep breath and barely held back the anger in his heart, "Cindy, do you like Mr. Fu?"

"Yes! He bought me a lot of delicious snacks when we went to the supermarket today!"

Chapter 469: Does Mr. Fu Want to Be My New Dad

0 4 minutes read

"Oh," Sean said casually, "Did Mr. Fu say anything strange to your mom?"

Cindy paused. She blinked and suddenly understood, "Dad, does Mr. Fu want to be my new dad?"

Sean didn't answer.

Sean couldn't be sure of that, but no man would want his woman to live under the same roof with a strange man.

Men knew men. No matter how good Fu He was, he was still a man.

Once his desire rose, he might hurt Amber.

“Cindy, do you want to... live with your mom only?”

“I can buy you a house in Los Angeles, and you tell your mother to move in?”

Cindy hesitated, “Dad, it costs a lot of money to buy a house, doesn’t it?”

Sean was stunned.

Cindy sounded like she quite cared about his money. Sean was a little bit surprised. It was the first time someone cared about his money.

If it was someone else, Sean would have been dismissive and thought she was a fool!

He was Sean, a man who monopolized most of Tong City’s businesses. How could he lack money?

But it was Cindy who cared about his money. Sean couldn’t help but feel moved.

His daughter was only three years old, and she already knew it was not easy to earn money and wanted to save him money?

What a thoughtful girl. There was probably no child who was better than Cindy.

She was not like Amber at all who was stubborn and annoying.

Cindy was so cute, probably because she was like him!

“Dad, don’t buy us a house. When will you come over? I want to return that card to you!”

Cindy’s tone was soft and cute, with a hint of anxiety.

Sean licked the corner of his lips, and the anger that had just subsided in his heart surged.

He refused to take it back, so Amber used Cindy to make him compromise?

Cindy was happy when she took the card, but she wanted to return it? What did Amber say to her?

Did she denigrate him in front of Cindy?

Did she compare him with anyone?

Was it Lu Yi, Fu He, or Shi Muzhou!

Or she compared the three of them with him? Would she go further and not allow Cindy to see him?

Sean took a deep breath with a sullen face.

“Why? Did your mother tell you something?”

“Yes.”

The anger was simmering in Sean’s heart.

Cindy didn't notice it, and whispered, "Mom said you are short of money and you can't even afford your food."

"I'm a good baby. I can't buy a house and toys when you have no money."

Sean's anger was quenched.

He looked astonished.

He was lack of money?

He couldn't afford food?

Those were what Amber told his daughter?

Sean took a deep breath, and there were mixed feelings in his chest.

Amber did not compare him with others.

But Amber said those words because she still didn't want his money.

Even a penny of him was probably dirty in Amber's eyes.

She didn't care about his money at all, and she wouldn't accept it.

Right!

There were so many people who had a crush on Amber, such as Fu He. Even if Amber wanted high technology that had not been developed, Fu He would spare no effort to invent it.

Such as Shi Muzhou. If Amber wanted to be famous and make easy money, Shi Muzhou would go all out to help her.

And Lu Yi, who was sinister and cunning. In his eyes, Amber was the most perfect.

But what did Sean have?

Appearance? Shi Muzhou seemed to be more young and handsome than him.

Money? Fu He didn't seem to be short of money, and the country wished to give him more.

No wonder Amber didn't care about him!

No wonder Amber wanted to give Cindy a new father. If he were Amber, he would do the same!

Sean's face became more and more gloomy, and he whispered, "Cindy, your mom was lying to you."

"I have money. Your mom lied to you because she wanted to keep you away from me."

Cindy's expression changed.

In the past three years, Amber compiled too many fairy tales for Cindy. She even made Cindy feel that Sean was indispensable.

What Sean said was a bit cruel to Cindy.

But Sean didn't want to be separated from Cindy. He didn't want to disappear from Cindy's and Amber's world.

His life was already pale. He didn't want the rest of his life to be paler.

"Cindy, I have money. Buying Wonderful Manor is like buying a doughnut for me."

"Tell dad, will you listen to your mother? If you listen to her, I won't be your father gradually."

"Why?"

Cindy's voice was choked, "Why does mom want to keep me from you? Dad, are you going to marry Lin Man?"

Children had good memories.

Saying that, she cried, "Dad, can you not marry her? Mom is just angry that you are close to her. You apologize to mom, so that we are still a family in the future."

"I don't want to lose you and mom!"

Cindy wiped away her tears and looked very pitiful with red eyes.

"Dad, my classmates used to say that I was a bastard who had no father. I don't want them to say that..."

Cindy was crying sadly. She was sitting in the pram with the mobile phone in her hand. Sean's heart ached.

Her tears ran down ceaselessly and her eyes were redder.

"Dad, the day I was hit by the car. It was Lin Man who took me out!"

"She is a bad woman. She said that if I told others, she would throw me in the mountains to feed wolves... Please don't marry her, okay..."

Sean felt like his heart was grabbed by two big hands.

He believed Cindy.

He believed that it was Lin Man who took her out, but he didn't believe that it was Lin Man who took her to that road.

Although Lin Man was not a kind person, she would not be so vicious as to kill a child!

At most, she tried to distract him and stop him from recalling what happened eight years ago.

Cindy's car accident was an accident.

But!

Chapter 470: I Won't Marry Lin Man

0 4 minutes read

Amber probably taught her to say those words.

She hated Lin Man and wanted Lin Man to pay the price. She made up such a story to put pressure on him.

Sean couldn't hate Amber at all, nor could he hate Cindy.

After all, they were both victims in this matter.

"Okay."

Cindy paused. Sean continued, "Cindy, I will not marry Lin Man."

"Then will you marry mom?"

After Amber finished the steak and approached Cindy, she only heard this sentence.

Her expression changed, and she snapped at Cindy, "Cindy!"

Cindy was terrified and looked up blankly. Her eyes were misty with tears.

"Mom!"

"Amber, you scared her!"

Wasn't it normal for a child to long for her divorced parents to remarry?

Why did Amber always lose her temper in front of him and Cindy?

Amber took a deep breath and ignored Sean.

She just wanted to dispel Cindy's obsession of getting them remarried.

Since she chose to leave Sean, she would never go back to him.

Remarry would do Sean and her no good!

"I didn't scare her! Cindy, tell mom, why are you crying?"

After asking this question, Amber took the phone in Cindy's hand and clicked to hang up.

Sean slammed his phone out.

Amber hung up on him again!

Sean's face turned blue in anger. What was she going to say to Cindy? To slander him again?

Was he a pushover that could be ignored and bullied at will in her eyes?

The atmosphere in the ward was suffocating. Xu Lin shrank his neck in fear.

He headed out carefully. Just after two steps, when he touched the doorknob of the ward door, he was stopped by Sean.

Xu Lin's hairs stood up, and he turned his head with a fawning smile, "Mr. Smith, what's the matter?"

Sean closed his eyes with a slightly pale face. His lips moved, and he said a phone number which Xu Lin felt familiar with.

"Mr. Smith? Is this a phone number you used before?"

Sean didn't deny it, and whispered, "Go get me its SIM card. I'll continue to use it."

Xu Lin didn't dare to ask Sean why. He nodded.

It was probably because of Director White or Cindy.

After Sean finished speaking, the phone lying on the ground suddenly rang. Sean opened his eyes suddenly and stared at the phone on the ground with burning eyes.

Who would call him at this time?

Was it Amber?

Did Cindy say something that made Amber change her attitude?

Was she going to apologize?

Was she going to ask him whether he would remarry her?

Did Amber want to remarry?

The corners of Sean's lips were curved involuntarily.

Amber ignored him. Why should he answer her call immediately?

He should also ignore and cold-shoulder her. Otherwise, she would be more arrogant.

"Mr. Smith, there's a... phone call for you."

Xu Lin leaned down and just picked up the phone when it hung up.

Sean's eyes deepened. He kept silent, and he was actually curious whether Amber would call again.

After a few breaths, the phone rang again.

Sean's eyes lit up, and a hint of vitality boomed on his face.

He barely pretended to be indifferent and reached out to Xu Lin.

Xu Lin handed the phone over. After Sean's sight touched the two words on the phone screen, his smile stiffened.

Lin Man.

Seeing these two words, Sean suddenly remembered what Cindy said.

"Dad, Lin Man is a bad woman. Don't marry her, okay?"

He heard Cindy's choking voice, and Amber's anxious and hysterical look in the hospital appeared before his eyes.

Sean pressed his lips tightly and answered it.

Lin Man's was no longer warm as it used to be. It was cold and gloomy, "Sean, I heard from your mom that you went to Los Angeles?"

The corner of Sean's mouth twitched, and he whispered, "Yes. You know, I had a car accident. I heard that the medical technology in Los Angeles is relatively advanced. I came here for treatment and see if I can recover before our wedding."

Lin Man didn't believe his words at all, but she still said in a low voice with a smile, "I see. Then I will buy a plane ticket in the afternoon and come to see you."

"Sean, I'll take care of you. Xu Lin is not considerate enough. If I'm around you, your mom will be relieved."

The coldness in Sean's eyes gradually became thicker. He suddenly smiled and said in a low voice, "Don't bother. I have already booked a ticket and will return to Tong City soon. By then, you can take care of me at Tong City Central Hospital."

"Really?"

"Los Angeles doesn't agree with me. When I just got here, my broken ribs almost got stuck into my chest cavity. I came here for treatment, not to die early. I might as well return to Tong City. What do you think?"

Lin Man smiled and did not answer. She asked in a low voice, "Sean, have you changed your mind?"

"You're willing to marry me now?"

"Yes."

Sean smiled meaningfully.

After hanging up the phone, Lin Man grew sullen. She pressed her lips tightly, and her heart seemed to have been crushed.

She waved her hand and slammed the lamp on the bedside to the ground.

Although Sean said he would marry her, there was no trace of joy and sincerity in his tone.

She smiled coldly, and a vicious look flashed across her clear eyes.

She didn't care if Sean married her or not, but she would never let Amber have an easy time!

The door of her bedroom was pushed open from the outside. Lin Man glanced at the man and a trace of disgust flashed across her eyes. She whispered, "What are you doing here?"

Lin Ye raised his eyes and said in a low voice, "I heard you slam something. Why? You called Sean?"

"It's none of your business."

“Lin Man, don’t go too far. If you hurt the interests of our Lin family, I will come at you over this!”
